The SANGUINIST

A RELIGIOUS WEEKLY

Glory be to Jesus,
Who in bitter pains
Poured for me the life blood
From His sacred veins.

Published by the
Sanguinist Club for Catholic Action
St. Joseph's College Collegeville, Indiana

October 27, 1940 Volume IV, No.6

CHRISTUS REX - - CHRIST THE KING

In universal acclamation and praise, the Catholic World joins today in paying tribute to Christ the King. The beautiful feast of Christ's Kingship which we celebrate today was instituted by the late pontiff, Pius XI. At Christ's birth the shepherds, and later the sages from the East known as the Three Kings, adored the infant as King. By His miracles, Christ proved himself King over all nature, non-living as well as living. He calmed the sea, changed water into wine; He restored sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf; He even restored the dead to life. Finally He showed His Kingship over death by His own Glorious Resurrection. King as Godman, King as Redeemer, King by right of the Holy Eucharest, we adore Him, we praise Him in union with all the faithful on earth, the Saints in Heaven, the suffering souls in Purgatory.

THE FEAST OF ALL THE SAINTS, NOVEMBER 1.

On Friday, the First Friday, we honor all the Saints in Heaven. Since it would be impossible to assign a day for each Saint, and since there are countless unknown heroes and heroines who have earned the glorious crown of sanctity, the Church has set aside a special day to observe the memory of all the Saints. Who knows? You may have a dear relative, a dear friend among the vast army of God's unsung heroes. Honor their memory this day. Receive Holy Communion with the intention that through their powerful intercession, you, too, may be admitted to the rank of those who shall for evermore enjoy the blessed company of Christ the King.

"HAVE PITY ON ME, AT LEAST YOU , MY FRIEND"

Cardinal Schuster, the renowned liturgician, refers to All Souls Day as the "Little Christmas of the Poor Souls", for on this day as on Christmas the priest is permitted to offer up three Masses. This is, indeed, a Christmas for the Poor Souls. The Church, as it were, lets down the flood-gates of her great spiritual treasures. Not only does she permit three Masses, but also grants a Plenary indulgence to be applied to the suffering souls for each visit to a Church or Chapel under these conditions: Confession and Holy Communion. Six Our Fathers, Hail Marys, and Glory be to the Fathers, at each visit for the Pope's intention. Confession and Holy Communion any time within a week. Time for gaining the indulgence is from noon of the Feast of All Saints to midnight of the Feast of All Souls. Remember your departed relatives and friends.

A TOAST TO THE SENIOR CLASSMEN - - - -

Following the suggestion of the Very Reverend President, the seniors are sponsoring a Novena for the success of the Alumni Drive. We urge all students to cooperate with their splendid endeavors. Prayer, and the rich fund Graces flowing from the Mass, Holy Communion, and Benediction should prove a "spiritual boomerang" for the zealous and untiring work of Father Dirksen and his associates. Remember the days: October 24 to November 1, inclusive.

A BID TO THE CLASS PRESIDENTS AND ALL CAMPUS LEADERS

Fully aware that much of the present world chaos can be traced to a tragic indifference to the great truths of Christianity, and a deplorable lethargy in religious and moral standards, we urge all the respective class presidents and leaders to do all they can by their example and moral persuasion to foster attendance at weekly Mass, frequent reception of the Sacraments, and devotion to the Blessed Sacrament. United, these leaders can effect a golden revival of Catholic thought and tradition. We ask their fullest cooperation.

Prayers requested for the repose of the soul of Sister M. Dominata, C.PP.S.

LITURGICAL CALENDAR

SUN.27. Feastof Jesus Christ the King. Last day of the Triduum for Peace. Christ is likewise our King by right of the Holy Eucharest. In this Sacrament of boundless love, He holds the love of mankind. Sanguinist Club members will observe perios of Adoration for peace after dinner.

MON.28. Feast of Sts. Simon and Jude, Apostles. The Apostles were close friends and associates of Christ. We should imitate their zeal and love for Christ's Kingdom on earth.

TUES. .29. Ferial Tuesday. The Mass offered today is thattaken from the XXIV Sunday after Pentecost.

WED.30. Mass of preceding day is offered.

THURS.31 The Vigil of the Feast of All Saints. Today is a day of fast and abstinence, consequently, no meat may beeaten. Confession at 6:30 P.M. Remember tomorrow is First Friday.

FRI.NOV.1. Solemn Feast of All Saints. Since it is a Holy Day of Obligt ion meat may be eaten on this day, the Friday obligation is suspended. Tomorrow is the Feast of All Souls.

SAT. 2. All Souls Day. Every priest is permitted to offer three Massses on this day. To forget the poor souls on this day would be a shameful lack of respect for their memory. A mother, or father, or relative, or friend is depending on you. Plenary Indulgence ont his day for each visit to Chapel.